Adjectives That Compare

Adjectives are often used to make comparisons. To compare two people, places, or things, you usually add -er to an adjective. To compare three or more people, places, or things, you usually add -est to an adjective.

Sometimes you must change the spelling of an adjective when you write the -er or -est form.

|                             |      |        |         |
|-----------------------------|------|--------|---------|
| Drop final e         | fine | finer  | finest  |
| Change y to i | easy | easier | easiest |
| Double final consonant      | big  | bigger | biggest |
